HYMN

The Lord's My Shepherd

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green: he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Even for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill:
For thou art with me; and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnishèd
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

HYMN

The Day You Gave Us, Lord, Is Ended

The day you gave us Lord is ended,
The darkness falls at your behest;
To you our morning hymns ascended,
You praise shall sanctify our rest.

We thank you that your Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
Nor rests from worship day or night.

As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the song of praise away.

The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our children 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Your wondrous deeds resound on high.

So be it, Lord! Your throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
Your kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
Till all your creatures own your sway.

HYMN

All Things Bright And Beautiful

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings:

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset, and the morning
That brightens up the sky:

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one:

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God almighty,
Who has made all things well.

The family would like to thank all those who made it possible for us to honour mum's wish to remain in her own home until the end. We were fortunate to be able to help her do that with the support of many wonderful healthcare professionals.

Our deep gratitude goes to them all - the many private carers, the Marie Curie palliative care nurses, the Glasgow council HSCP teams, the doctors and all the NHS personnel - particularly the dedicated and always reassuring District Nurses.

We respect and admire all these individuals for their attentive skills, compassion and commitment.

Ensuring our mother's wellbeing and comfort at home would not have been possible without them.

The Lochhead family would like to thank you for your kind thoughts and the support you have shown by being here with us today.

We warmly invite you to join us after the service at the Sherbrooke Castle Hotel, 11 Sherbrooke Avenue G41 4PG (opposite the church).

A plate will be made available after the service for donations to Marie Curie palliative care nurses, who supported our mother and the family on several occasions
to enable us to continue caring for Rona at home.
